The French Cable Question—Decision in the Yerger Habeas Corpus Deferred—Next Public Debt Statement—Raid on Illicit Distillers at Philadelphia—Indian Depredations—Accidents on Pacific Railroad.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 16, 1869.

THE FRENCH CABLE.

The French and British Legation have respectfully forwarded to the parties directly interested the letter of the Secretary of State relative to telegraph communication between the United States and foreign countries, and particularly in relation to the landing of the French Cable. A copy of the same letter will in a few days be transmitted to the Governor of Massachusetts, as a terminus of it is proposed to be secured in that state. Copies of the bill which passed the Senate, but failed to be acted upon in the House for want of time, are enclosed to the parties above mentioned, as a base of action on the part of the Government of the United States, and as showing the opinion of Congress on the subject.

THE GEORGIA HABEAS CORPUS.

Owing to the importance of the questions involved in the Yerger case, the Attorney General has entered into a written stipulation with Phillips and Carlise for the purpose of initiating proceedings by which these questions will be brought before the Supreme Court in October next for consideration and adjudication. In the meantime the application to the Chief Justice is suspended, without prejudice to the petitioner. The District Attorney in Mississippi is directed to facilitate any proceedings necessary for the presentation of the case to the Supreme Court. The Attorney General is authorized by the President to say no sentence of the Military Commission will be carried into effect, save that which may be necessary to the safe custody of the prisoner. This agreement meets with the approbation of Chief Justice Chase.

PUBLIC DEBT.

From indications at the Treasury Department, it is believed the next public statement will show another large reduction of the indebtedness, though not near so large as exhibited on the first of the present month. The receipts from customs and internal revenue are considered good for the dull season. Estimating the receipts and expenses of the Government for the remainder of July on the basis of what they have been to the present date, the debt statement on the first of August will show a reduction of upwards of five millions of dollars.

ACCIDENTS ON PACIFIC RAILROAD.

A dispatch from Sidney Station, on the Pacific Railroad, says the train ran off the track yesterday, near Antelope Station, in consequence of the washing away of an embankment. Malcolm Spears, of Michigan, and John Dwyer, of Emmittsburg, Md., were killed. Alex. Wagstaff, of St. Louis, and two other passengers were injured. Three passenger cars, baggage car and engine were smashed. A freight train also ran off the track near there, and a passenger train going east had run off the track on Tuesday, killing a discharged soldier. Rains have been heavy there.

ILLICIT DISTILLING IN TENNESSEE.

Information has been received at the Revenue Bureau, from Tennessee, of the capture of an ox wagon in the mountains of Rock county, loaded with whisky from some illicit distillery. The owner of the team was selling whisky from the wagon. The proprietor abandoned the team and took to the woods. His name is Allen. It was taken possession of, but was subsequently recaptured from the officers. The whisky was poured on the ground and the wagon abandoned.

MILITARY PROTECTION ACCORDED.

Gen. Sherman directs the commanding Generals of Military Departments on the frontier to furnish such military protection and escort as is necessary to members of the Commission on Indian Affairs in their tour of inspection of Indian tribes upon the reservations, about to be made by the sub-committees of said Commission.

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.

Dispatch from a mail agent, at Mesilla, New Mexico, states the Apache Indians have killed two drivers of mail wagons, and captured and tore up two of the last mails between there and Tuscan, Arizona. The whole route is infested with predatory Apaches.

RAID ON DISTILLERS.

The revenue officers of Philadelphia, with the aid of marines, have been making another raid on illicit distilleries in the Richmond district, this time cleaning them out completely. No particulars.

NEARLY DESERTED.

The Executive Mansion is nearly deserted. Only one clerk is now employed in the President's office.

THE HEAT.

The thermometer at four o'clock this afternoon stood at 101 deg. Several sunstrokes are reported.

CONSUL APPOINTED.

Richard P. Dehart, of Indiana, has been appointed Consul at St. Jaga, De Cuba.

READY ON MONDAY.

The fifteen cent currency will be ready for issue on Monday next.

Serious Trouble at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—Military Called Out.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

POUGHKEEPSIE, July 16.—There is much excitement here, growing out of the Welch swindle. Sheriff Kenworthy has attempted several times to attach property at Pleasant Valley, but the Irish laborers, to the number of seventy-five or one hundred, have resisted him. The military has been ordered to report to the Sheriff forthwith, and a riot was believed to be imminent, as the Irish at Pleasant Valley are organized for resistance. Captain Homberestil, with Company D, 21st Regiment, will respond with forty men and thirty rounds of ball cartridge. His company is now assembling at the armory.

Prize Fight Between Boys—Heavy Rain Storm—Present Situation of the Crops in Illinois—Excursion to California—Iowa Democratic Nominations—Death from Kerosene—Excitement in the Grain Market.

CHICAGO, July 16.—A special dispatch from St. Paul says that the prize fight which occurred there on Tuesday evening was between two boys, each only 14 years of age. They had been in training under the direction of two bruisers for six weeks, and they were kept in the ring by the brutes after one of the boys had begged that the fight might stop. All concerned have been arrested, and three of the ringleaders, McDonald, Jones and DeWitt, fined fifty dollars each and required to give bonds of three hundred dollars to keep the peace. In default they were sent to jail.

It rained in the city nearly all last night and most of the time very rapidly, with occasionally showers during the day. The storm extended into the center of this State, causing much damage to crops, railroad tracks, etc. Reports from the middle portions of the State say that last year's corn in cribs is rottening and sprouting. In regard to the present situation of the crops the following summary, as gathered from various sources, may be regarded as a fair one: The enormous breadth of small grain planted, had there been no drawbacks, would have produced an unparalleled crop, so much so that should it be damaged to the extent of over half we should still secure a good average crop. The wheat crop in Iowa, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Minnesota is superabundant, in excellent condition and vast in extent beyond precedent. The winter wheat in Southern Illinois has been mainly cut and is of an excellent quality, and though the rain has retarded the stacking, there is no cause for alarm. Central Illinois, especially along the Illinois Central and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, has suffered most. Rain has fallen in torrents, and deluged the country to such an extent that the use of reaping machines is entirely cut of the question. The farmers of that section have a hard time of it, wading up to their knees in mud trying to save what they can with cradles. The cry that comes from that section should not lead any one to infer that such a state of things is general. In northern Illinois the grain looks very well, and promises a good yield. In regard to corn, under the most favorable circumstances it can scarcely be expected to be more than a two-thirds crop. There will be an immense yield of oats.

A large excursion party will leave Madison, Wis., on Monday, for California. Congressmen Hopkins and Sawyer, and most of the Wisconsin State officers, will be of the party.

The Democrats of Iowa, in their Convention on Wednesday, made the following nominations: Governor, George Gillespie; Lieutenant Governor, A. P. Richardson, editor North Iowa Times; Supreme Judge, W. M. Braddon; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Edmund Yeager.

A fire occurred at Providence, Illinois, this morning, burning buildings and goods to the value of $10,000.

Mrs. Crawford, residing at 23 Elgin street, was burned to death yesterday by the explosion of a can of kerosene, which she was using to aid in lighting a fire.

After the close of 'Change, a meeting of the directors of the Board of Trade was held, and the subject of heated corn discussed, after which the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That from information received by the Directors in regard to the condition of corn in various elevators, they are of the opinion that there is not sufficient difference in the condition to justify any discrimination in the receipts of different dates and would recommend that receipts be treated alike in sales and deliveries.

There was considerable excitement in the grain markets and a large business transacted: No. 2 spring Wheat sold up to $1.32¾@1,34 cash and seller the month. No. 2 Corn moderately active and a large number of settlements were made; no corn changing hands, simply a difference being paid; sales were made of regular at 75@78c, and 80c was bid for sound seller month. Provisions and freights inactive. In the evening No. 2 wheat changed hands at $1,32½@1,33, and closing at $1,33@1.33¼. Corn dull, with a few sales of No. 2 at 78c seller month, July and August.

Further Particulars of the Accident on the Erie Railroad.

NEW YORK, July 16.—There are a few additional particulars of the Erie Railroad accident Mr. Gibson, a passenger, says of the burning of the smoking car "that in it, wedged in his seat by the heap of broken timber, sat Rev. Mr. Halleck, of New York city, perfectly unhurt, but unable to extricate himself from the wreck. In calm accents and perfectly collected tones, he told us to get an axe to try to cut an opening in the side of the car. We searched around and obtained one from a house by the roadside, but it was so blunt that we could do nothing with it. We worked and strove to liberate the unfortunate gentleman, who sat there sound in limb, watching the approach of the hungry flames. Nearer and nearer they came until his hair began to crisp and burn, and his skin to crack. Then, when we in like manner found the heat unbearable, we reluctantly retired, compelled to leave this poor gentleman with his eight fellow-sufferers to their terrible fate. We moved off until all was over. Nine persons were thus burned to death, and nine others injured more or less severely."

Another passenger says: I heard the little children screaming for their mothers, and the passengers who were in the ruins calling for help and groaning with pain. An axe was got and one or two were actually chopped out of their imprisonment. Most of the passengers in this car were killed and their bodies consumed or injured. I should think there were sixteen or seventeen persons in the front end of this car, and I think but two were taken out. I do not think there was a person killed by the smash, but all the deaths were from burning.

Later.—Nothing further is known regarding the killed or burned. The wounded are reported doing well. The Coroner's inquest was to take place this afternoon, at Lackawaxan. The injuries of the flagman are more serious than was at first supposed, and it is feared they may terminate fatally.

Irish Church Disestablishment—Protest of Earl Derby—Comments of the Press—Ministerial Changes in France—Austrian Bishop Refuses to Accept Amnesty.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, July 16.—The Times, to-day, has an editorial on the action taken by the House of Commons last night. It says the bill will go back to the House of Lords in almost its original shape. The House of Commons have decided that the amendments adopted by the House of Lords are inconsistent with the bill, and there is no reason to believe the House of Commons will surrender. If the Lords persist, a collision must ensue, which will result in a popular agitation and a renewal of the measure, with a fiercer determination to carry it through. The Times trusts that the Conservative Peers will be content with the presentation of Earl Derby's protest, which usage allows them, and not continue their opposition to the bill.

Meetings of the people in support of the Commons on the Irish Church bill continue to be held in various parts of the Kingdom.

John Bright has been unanimously elected a member of the Athenaeum Club.

The Reform League contemplate an indignation demonstration against the House of Lords.

LONDON, July 16.—The protest against the Irish Church bill by Earl Derby is signed by forty-seven Peers. It was entered against this bill on the ground that it looked to the severance of Church and State, a project unrecognized by any country in Europe, and the adoption of the bill would encourage the designs of those who want such severance extended throughout the United Kingdom, together with resumption of grants and confiscation of property. The protest further states that the passage of the bill was a violent stretch of the power of Parliament, which shakes the confidence in all property, and especially that resting on Parliamentary title. The protest sets forth the impossibility of putting the disestablished, disendowed Church on a footing and organization of Catholics, and that this grievance caused the Irish Protestant alienation from the loyal supporters of the throne and a stimulation in the demands of Catholics.

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 16.—It is stated to-day that a Cabinet portfolio has been offered to three prominent men of the Opposition party. M. Rouher is likely to accept the Presidency of the Senate for a time. It is thought, however, he will be asked to return to the Ministry.

The Temps says the party of the Left demand the dissolution and reorganization of the Prefects, as express conditions of the acceptance of office.

CUBAN REVOLUTION.

Gen. Poello Defeated by the Patriots—Insurgents Concentrating in the Woods.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, July 16.—General Poello at the head of three hundred Spanish marines, was attacked by the Patriots near Baya, a small town situated on the same bay as Nuevitas, and not far from that city. The marines were forced to fall back upon Nuevitas, with a loss of eighty, including General Poello, killed.

In the woods surrounding Puerto Principe, thousands of insurgents are concentrating, and are only waiting to be armed with the Peabody breech loading rifles, with bayonets, to assume offensive operations. Holquin, one of the insurgent leaders, intends to go to the United States for the purpose of bringing back a force of Americans.

Intelligence from Santiago De Cuba of the eighth instant reports fighting going on thirty miles from that city. The parties were strongly reinforced. General Jordan had joined the Cubans under General Figuerredo, and now commands a large force.

The Spanish Governor of Baraco is actively burning property and killing all who fall into his hands.

HAVANA, July 16.—News was received here to the effect that the rebels burned eighteen houses at Arrago Blanco.

—A dispute occurred Thursday evening on board the steamer Charmer, at Louisville, between two deck hands and the mate, James Gilmore, resulting in the stabbing of Gilmore by one of the parties named John Whitten. The wound is not dangerous.

Brokers Arrested for Usury—Safe Robbed.

NEW YORK, July 16, 1869.

The following brokers were brought before Judge Cordaza to-day on charges of usury: David M. Morrison, Russell Sagi, Geo. Phipps, Edward R. Jones, Lucius J. Van Bushkirk, Reuben W. Howes, and Chas. A. Macy. They each gave bail in $3,000 for trial. The court room was densely crowded, as well by the friends of the prisoners as citizens generally. The warrants issued for the arrest of the other parties indicted have not yet been executed, as the officers have not been able to find the designated persons. It is rumored that some of them have left the State in order to avoid arrest.

The safe of Phelan & Collender was robbed last night of some three thousand dollars' worth of valuables by burglars.

The trotting match on Fashion Course for $1,000, mile heats, three in five in harness, between Goldsmith Maid and Palmer, was won by Goldsmith Maid easily, in 2:23½, 2:24 and 2:24½.

The bark Warrior Gun, from Havana, now at this port, reports her Captain and nine men were in the hospital at Havana with yellow fever, three of whom died. The remainder was convalescent.

The thermometer at three o'clock marked 96 in the shade. Several cases of sunstroke occurred. A thunder shower cooled the atmosphere towards evening.

This afternoon the Superior Court case of O'Mahony against August Belmont, banker, was disposed of. The action was for the recovery of $20,000 in gold deposited by the plaintiff to the credit of one O'Leary, who did not collect the same. It was for Fenian purposes, as is supposed. The Court decided the evidence was clear the amount was deposited by plaintiff, and he was entitled to repossession.

Up to midnight, no intelligence had been received from the Marshal's Deputies and force of marines, sent to disperse Col. Ryan's fillibusters on Gardiner's Island.

Little Rock Railroad Progress—Tragedy in Arkansas—Negroes in a Great State of Excitement.

MEMPHIS, July 16.—The Little Rock Railroad has been finished to Forest City, beyond St. Fonse river. The first bale of cotton through by rail arrived here from that point yesterday. The steamer Indiana put out a large shipment of iron rails opposite here intended for the road yesterday.

Mr. Koopmanchap, Chinese Immigrant Importer, left for New York today. He will return next month to perfect plans for introducing Chinese colonies.

Capt. Haynes, of Crittenden county, Ark., opposite the city, was shot and killed yesterday, at Marion, by Clarener Collier. Haynes was a notorious leader in the late military outrages, and was very odious to the citizens. The difficulty which caused his death arose over a game of cards. Haynes endeavored to draw a pistol on Collier, who quickly took a shot gun and fired a double load into Haynes, and afterwards, with a revolver, shot three bullets through his forehead. Sheriff Harden, with a posse of negroes, hurried after Collier, but failed to capture him. A perfect reign of terror prevails to-day in the vicinity of Marion. The negroes have mobbed and gutted Rice's store, destroying over $20,000 worth of property, set the store on fire, and are on a general rampage. They caught an unoffending citizen near Mound City this morning, and whipped him badly; also boarded a steamer at Appanson's Landing, a few miles below, and made violent threats. They finally left the vessel without doing any harm.

Governor Senter and W. B. Stokes, candidates for the governsrship, speak here to morrow.

Emigration Statistics—Medical Council of Ontario.

TORONTO, July 16.—The emigration statistics show that during the first six months of the present year, 19,308 emigrants arrived here, of whom 5,038 remained in Canada, the others going to the United States.

At the Medical Council of Ontario, in session here, Dr. Agnew gave notice of a motion condemnatory of the new Medical act, and that the Lieutenant Governor and Legislature be petitioned to repeal the clauses uniting the homeopathists and eclectics with the regular medical profession. The resolutions come up for discussion to-night.

The Medical Counsel was engaged today in discussing Dr. Agnew's motion for an amendment to the new medical act. After an animated debate, Dr. De Brous offered an amendment, that notwithstanding the objects of many, they were prepared to use their best efforts to make it acceptable by raising the standard of medical education. The amendment was carried—20 to 7. An educational scheme for primary and final examinations was then adopted by homeopathists, allopaths and eclectics.

—The passenger train which left Omaha, on the U. P. Railroad, on Wednesday morning, was thrown down an embankment near Rodney station, and the locomotive and several cars demolished. Two persons were killed, Medville Shears, the fireman, and a passenger named John Dwyer, of Emmetsburg, Md. Several other passengers were injured.

—S. W. Fowler has brought suit for thirty-nine thousand five hundred dollars damages, in the Superior Court, at Cincinnati, against the late Collector, McGroarty, and Supervisor Young, for alleged illegal seizure of his distillery.

—The Educational State Colored Convention, at Louisville, adjourned sine die, after a session of three days, having accomplished the business for which it was called, namely, to devise means for the education of the colored children.

—President Grant's party arrived at Fortress Monroe yesterday, partook of hospitalities at headquarters, and left for New York on the gunboat Tallapoosa.

TEMPERANCE.

The Temperance Men—Meeting Last Night—What They Propose—Resolutions Adopted—Convention to be Called and County Commissioner to be Nominated.

Last evening a number of Temperance adherents, consisting of representatives from the various election districts of the county, in all about seventy-five persons, assembled in Mozart Hall, Seventh avenue, to take into consideration several matters pertaining to the Temperance cause, chief among which was the practicability of putting in nomination a Temperance candidate for County Commissioner.

The meeting was organized at eight o'clock, when the Rev. John McMillan was called to the chair, and Messrs. Geo. Irwin, G. W, Bradley and Reporters of the Press, designated as Secretaries.

Rev. J. W. Winkerson opened the proceedings with prayer.

Mr. S. D. McCandless then explained the object of the meeting, after which a committee, consisting of Messrs Charles Colton, L. H. Eaton and S. D. McCandless, was appointed to prepare resolutions.

The committee retired, and while waiting for their report, the meeting was entertained with remarks by Mr. G. W. Bradley, who said one of the prime objects of the gathering was to organize a county society for the promotion and spread of temperance principles. He entered into quite a lengthy discussion upon the evils created by intemperance in the land, and gave a number of statistics and illustrations in proof of his statements, when he was interrupted by the entrance of the committee, the chairman of which read the following

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, The present license laws are so badly administered and so much evaded, that it becomes our duty as honest, law-abiding citizens, that we put forth efforts to cure the evil of a bad administration of the law, and whereas the common expression that "intemperance runs riot" stands before us this day as a living truth, and the great increase of tippling houses is but the great cancer that is eating, rioting and destroying the human system, breeding pestilence that calls upon us to act for the sake of suffering humanity, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as citizens of Allegheny county, believing that it is a solemn duty to God and ourselves to claim at the ballot-box the election of honest men to carry out our license laws, and also claim the right of petition for passage of such laws as shall counteract the wide-spread of intemperance among us, do hereby in public mass meeting assembled.

Resolved, That we organize ourselves into a County League or Convention for the purpose of placing in nomination a suitable person for the office of County Commissioner, to counteract the evils arising out of the mal-administration of the license laws by the present County Commissioners, believing that the great mass of the voters of this county are a people who wish to vote for that which is good and right.

Resolved, That we appeal to all ministers af the Gospel to unite in one great effort in this need of reform at this time, and earnestly request them to bring before their people the fact that intemperance runs riot and offer to their people the nominee which the temperance people make. We do this believing that the ministers hold a power which it is their duty and right to exercise at this time.

Resolved, That there be one person, a good Temperance man, from each of the townships, boroughs and wards within Allegheny county, appointed as far as practicable at this meeting. Said persons shall constitute an Executive Committee, to carry on a campaign by canvassing this county, holding Temperance meetings, raising moneys, publishing tickets, advertising and perform all such business as shall secure the bringing before the people the nominee of this Convention, acting under the full impression of our ability to elect a County Commissioner at the coming election.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee cause to be held in the city of Pittsburgh, in some large and convenient church or place, a mass meeting in the first week of August next, to bring the nominee and the good of his election before the people.

A POLICY INDICATED.

Mr. Blair favored the passage of the resolutions. He did not think the candidate thus nominated could be elected, but thought the temperance men should keep moving. They had tried to do their duty in a former campaign, and had astonished their foes. He believed in continuing the work and adding each year to the vote thus polled. By this means, in a short time they could secure the balance of power, and thus would be enabled to demand from their opponents some recognition of their claims, even if they failed to elect their candidate on a square issue!

Mr. L. H. Eaton favored the adoption of the resolution, but not on the grounds advanced by the last speaker. He thought the temperance men were strong enough to control this matter if they were fully united. It was a question which appealed strongly to the sympathies of every good and true heart, and the only difficulty was in getting the people once to see that active exertions were being put forth in its advancement. He was glad to see so many young men present. It had been the cry at the last campaign by the politicians, that the election was too important to have any division of the party. The young men had been deluded by this cry. They had been told to wait for a more opportune time, for another year or so, when the election was not so important. This was all a mistake. If the matter was right at all, it should be pushed forward at any time. He hoped none would again be deluded by this false appeal. The cause was that of humanity and heaven, and if temperance men but did their duty properly, good men from the Democrats and Republicans would join with them, and when the voting time came they would roll up a vote which would astonish their opponents and elect the temperance candidate.

Rev. Mr. McMillan, G. W. Bradley and others followed in brief remarks, after which the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

TREASURER AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

On motion of Mr. Bradley, Mr. Jonathan Gallaher was selected as Treasurer for the reception of all moneys contributed for the campaign.

In accordance with the resolutions an Executive Committee, consisting of one delegate from each election district was appointed, and Mr. Geo. Irwin selected as Chairman.

AN OPPORTUNE SUGGESTION.

While this business was being transacted, the name of a delegate was called when Mr. Colton said: I think we ought to be strict in this matter, and appoint none on this committee but active, true temperance men—not do as has been done, elect a man as one of the Vice Presidents of our temperance league who always drank his wine freely, and laughed about us in counting him in. [Laughter.]

Mr. Warren—Well, Mr. Chairman, have we any of that class amongst us now? I think if we have, now is the time to get rid of them.

Mr Bradley—Yes, sir, we have some black sheep, but we can't stop here to mend matters. We'll attend to that again.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

The stir caused by this little incident broke the monotony of the proceedings for a few minutes, when, after the committee had been duly selected,

Mr. Bradley moved that two delegates from each district in the county be elected, to meet in Convention in the first week in August, according to the resolutions, to nominate a candidate for County Commissioner. Carried.

THE FINANCES.

Mr. Bradley now made an earnest appeal for money to carry on the campaign. He proposed that those present step forward and sign their names to a list, with the contribution they intended presenting to forward the work to be undertaken. He was interrupted very frequently by motions and suggestions as to the best methods of securing the funds, and was finally compelled to yield by the passage of a motion to "pass round the hat." He at once directed his attention to this matter, and, aided by another zealous delegate, energetically moved about the Hall and succeeded in securing a very respectable sum judging from its appearance when spread upon the table.

Several delegates now wished to speak further in reference to the Convention, but they were summarily disposed of by Mr. Bradley, who said: "All has been done now that we can do at this meeting except to raise more money. If anybody has any money to give, he can do it now."

Mr. Colton—Mr. Chairman: About two years ago we had a Convention in Allegheny something like this, and I was appointed Treasurer. At that time a collection was taken up and we raised nine dollars, four of which was paid to the janitor of the hall where we met. The remaining five dollars I still hold subject to the order of the Treasurer of the next Convention.

Remarks of this character having a bearing upon the most important point to be considered, apparently, in the conduct of the campaign, seemed to delight the delegates, who responded with hearty applause.

Mr. Bradley then announced that the day of meeting for the Convention, and other matters pertaining thereto, would be duly announced by advertisements, the money for this having been fortunately secured, [glancing benignantly at the pile on the table,] after which the meeting adjourned.

On last Sabbath night, Mrs. Jeremiah Snyder, of Springfield township, Fayette county, Pa., gave birth to three fine girls, the least weighing six pounds. All are doing well, and bid fair to live.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

RHETORIC: A Text-book, designed for use in Schools and Colleges and for Private study. By Rev. E. O. Haven, D. D., LL. D., President of the University of Michigan. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

During a recent hurried visit to New York, the enterprising publishers put this book into our hands. After a careful examination of the mode of treating this interesting subject, we find it the best work of the kind we have ever seen. The style is simple and clear, without the dry details usually found in this class of works. Every part is presented, too, in terse and vigorous language, and the student is conducted step by step, accompanied with lucid illustrations and suitable directions. The author's pecullr methodical bent of mind is seen in the precision and sharp definitions of each part. We anticipate the work will have a wide sale, as it should. After a brief introduction, part first treats of "Words and the Material of Expression;" part second, "Figures of Speech and Thought;" third, "Composition and Style;" fourth, "Invention," and fifth and last part, "Elocution." The "Index" is full and satisfactory.

JEREMIAH AND HIS LAMENTATIONS; with Notes, Critical, Explanatory and Practical, designed for both pastors and people. By Rev. Henry Cowles, D. D. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

In reviewing the volume on Isaiah, immediately preceding this, we noted particularly the style observed by the author in treating the prophesies. Dr. Cowles has prepared his Notes on Jeremiah in the same manner. The volume opens with a general introduction, embodying valuable historical facts, and is admirably suited as a preparatory chapter to the study of Jeremiah. Each chapter opens with an explanation of its contents, very full when the chapter is an important one. The critical notes are in sections, frequently several verses are grouped together, which are often very elaborate and comprehensive. It is an excellent work for all classes who desire to study this prophet. Much interest is taken in the prophesies of this noted servant of God, and students will find valuable help in consulting these Notes. The discussion of the "Premellennial Advent of Christ," in its fundamental principles, will no doubt attract the attention of scholars. Dr. Cowles announces that his work on Solomon will constitute the next volume.

FIVE ACRES TOO MUCH. A truthful elucidation of the attractions of the country, and a careful consideration of the question of profit and loss, as involved in ameteur farming, with much valuable advice and instruction to those about purchasing large or small places in the rural districts. By Robert B. Roosevelt, author of "The Game Fish of North America," etc. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Capital book for summer reading. Just now a good many people are charmed with rural life. Multitudes are seeking the pleasure of shade and the comforts of the country. After reading this piece of satire, one would suppose that the desire to own one or five acres would vanish. Not so, people who read this work will "try it," and realize just such an experience as the author's, or something like it. It is comfortable to think that a considerable sum of money is spent in ameteur farming, though the product of the outlay may cost ten times more than the same article could be purchased. Its quaint humor and rollicking sketches will interest all who read the book, and legions will want to buy it.

PRIMARY TRUTHS OF RELIGION. By Rev. Thos. M. Clark, D. D., Bishop of of the Diocese of Rhode Island. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York. For sale by S. A. Clark & Co., Pittsburgh.

The object of Bishop Clark is happily conceived, namely, to furnish answers of an evangelical type to questions that may arise in an unsettled mind in regard to the fundamental principles of morals and religion. Irrefutable arguments are presented to show the divine attributes of God, his revelations and control over man, the inspiration of the Bible, origin of Christianity, resurrection of Christ, and the position of Christ in history. These great truths are forcibly presented, in terse and vigorous language, such as might be expected by a chaste and scholarly writer. The book will do good and supply a needed want.

THE BRIDE'S FATE. A sequal to "The Changed Brides." By Mrs. Southworth. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Pittsburgh.

Such has been the interest felt by those who read "The Changed Brides," that much solicitude was expressed to read the sequel. The publishers did not keep the public long waiting. It is thought by many of the admirers of the author that these two are among the most thrilling and entertaining of her numerous publications. No doubt but that both will be extensively read.

THE DEAD GUEST. A Mysterious Story. By Henirich Zschokke. Translated from the German by G. C. McWhorter, M. A.

THE LOST MANUSCRIPT. A Novel. By Gustav Freytag. Translated by Mrs. Malcom. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York, for sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

These two volumes are 7 and 8 of "Appleton's Library of Choice Reading," in paper covers, cheap and elegantly printed. "The Dead Guest," is a thrilling story, and will likely startle the reader, though it ends well. Fretag's novel, "The Lost Manuscript," sustains the reputation he secured by "Debit and Credit," and other stories. University life in Germany is admirably portrayed, and the lineaments of characters are strongly and truthfully drawn. The peculiarities of German life are vividly brought out in the author's happy vein of composition.

COLOR. By Madame M. E. Cave, Member of the Academy of Fine Arts, of Amsterdam. Published by G. P. Putnam & Son, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

To have the approval of Delacroix is sufficient to give this work status. But it embodies in the form of letters valuable instruction in everything pertaining to the subject in hand. The charming style of these letters make them read like romance, and yet there is a vein of practical instruction running through them that cannot fail to interest and instruct the reader.

A STRANDED SHIP. By L. Clarke Davis Published by G. P. Putnam & Son, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

This story is familiar to many from the fact that it originally appeared in Putnam's Magazine. The thread of the story is founded upon a meegre plot, but the author has admirably used the material. It is a story of decided interest and rather above the ordinary class of novels. Those who have read the story in serial form will be pleased to have it complete in one volume.

GOOD MEASURE. A Story for Boys. By D. S. Erickson. Published by Henry A. Young & Co., Boston. For sale by J. L. Read & Son, Pittsburgh.

We are sure that if we can induce youthful roaders to read "Good Measure," they will think Robin and Frank were brave boys, and well illustrate the truth taught in the volume, that integrity and truth are valuable elements in forming character. It is well suited for Sunday School libraries, and may be read with advantage in any family circle.

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE; The Reform Against Nature. By Dr. Horace Bushnell. Published by Charles Scribner & Co., New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

It must be conceded that the question of "Women's Suffrage" in the hands of such an able writer as Dr. Bushnell, will be discussed with signal ability, and in a manner that will command the attention of the thoughtful. The "Acknowledgment" of his estimate of woman is graceful and in good taste. The opening chapter is devoted to a statement of the question. Dr. Bushnell then takes the ground that there is no right of suffrage absolute in man or woman, and argues that women are not created or called to govern. The book throughout is able, but will not satisfy the advanced views of the day on this question. Points are discussed that have long been used against women and fail to convince able writers. The volume will, however, help to elucidate a question that is likely to receive considerable attention ere long. Rights clamored for by female reformers is one thing, and the rights women are worthy of is quite another.

SIGHTS AND SENSATIONS IN FRANCE, GERMANY AND SWITZERLAND; or, Experiences of an American Journalist in Europe. By Edward Gould Buffum, author of "Six Months in the Gold Mines," etc. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

It is by no means just to condemn new books of travel in Europe because the same scenes are described again, or rather the same route of travel is traversed. A wide awake traveller can always glean something new and interesting. Too many give mere surface observations and consult guide books too much. This work, however, steers clear of both these faults, and is the product of one who lived many years in Europe, and was gifted as a first class journalist and correspondent. It will repay reading, and is a capital companion for summer tourists. The author recently died in Paris, and the work is edited by his brother. Miner has all of Harper's publications.

THE STOMACH AND ITS DIFFICULTIES. By Sir James Eyre, M.D., "Member of the Royal College of Physicians of London," etc. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This little work of something over one hundred pages, contains a vast fund of useful information, on a subject too little considered, and the real cause of many diseases that affect human kind. Diet, dyspepsia, sleep, indigestion, food, habits, exercise, etc., are treated in a scholarly manner, and witnal, in plain language. The author's views on some things are not invulnerable, but generally accepted.

THACKERAY'S NOVELS. Household Edition. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

We have received "The Virginians," and "Esmond Lovel," second and third volumes of the series. We took occasion in noticing the first volume of this elegant library edition, to commend it for its excellencies, both as it regards type, paper, binding and convenient size. It is really a beautiful edition, and like Reade's Household Edition, will be popular and widely circulated. The merits of these two volumes are well known by the admirers of Thackeray.

A RAINY DAY AT SCHOOL. By Mada. Published by D. Lathrop & Co., Boston. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

This little volume is one of the "Rainy Day Stories," that many of the "wee folk" have doubtless seen. Lessons, useful and instructive, are to be found in this prettily illustrated book.

BILL RIGGS, JR., a story of a City Boy. By Olive A. Wadsworth. FROM DARKNESS TO LIGHT; or, A Christmas Carol, and What Came of It. Published by Warren & Blakeslee, Boston. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

The first depicts the career of one in the lowly walks of society, and happily illustrates characteristics that are worthy of imitation by young persons in all classes of society. "From Darkness to Light" is a touching story, and reveals an inside picture of human life that will rouse the tenderest sensibilities.

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York, have favored us through Miner with "The Sacristan's Household," "Stretton," the second and concluding part of "He Knew that He was Right," and "The Newcomes," and "The Adventures of Philip on His Way Through the World." The first of these novels, "The Sacristan's Household," is a story of Lippe-Detmold. It is thoroughly German, and covers an interesting period in the late Prussian war. It is illustrated with much taste, which helps considerably the comfort of the reader. Trollope's "He Knew that He was Right" fully sustains the large expectations induced in the reading of the first part. He has well established his reputation as a writer of decided merit. "Stretton," by Kingsley, is an English story. It is readable and spirited. It is a matter of surprise that the elegant edition of Thackeray's works in paper covers, beautifully illustrated, can be furnished at the low price of fifty and seventy-five cents. "The Newcomes" is full four hundred pages, and all for seventy-five cents. This is one of Thackeray's greatest creations and most popular works. "The Adventures of Philip," for fifty cents, is another of Thackeray's great works.

ROBERTS BROTHERS, Boston, send us the third and last part of "Villa Eden." They offer to send a copy of this work, handsomely bound in one volume, cloth, on the receipt of the three parts and fifty cents. The wide spread reputation of Auerbach is well known. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co.

The Fool Fishery.

A swindle of the first magnitude has just sprung into existence at Philadelphia, and in novelty, at least, has never been equalled in this country, or in any other. Its motto is: "Let us search the world over, sifting the wheat from the chaff, thereby improving the human race." All of this is supposed to mean matrimony, and as the American people are a cold-hearted race, the considerate organizers of this colossal fraud propose to found a Matrimonial Department of the First Progressive Church of Philadelphia, through whose instrumentality and for the very moderate consideration of a fee of $5 from every male, and $3 from every woman, husbands may be found for wives, and wives for husbands. Their "sacredly confidential examination circular" (as they call it) informs us of the fact that these religious swindlers regard matrimony as the "highest and holiest function of the True Church," and "conduct this department in perfect confidence." The facilities which they have on hand to further the interest and secure the success of this holy enterprise, they tell us, are great. They have a private book of registry, which will contain the name, address, temperament, condition of health, circumstances, position, business, age, religious faith, if any (probably the True Church) habits, desires, etc., of each applicant. We forget to mention that this concern is not without its "conditions" and its share of "ifs," for it is emphatically set forth in italics that the fees must be forwarded with the application for registry, or no notice will be taken of it; and, furthermore, that every subsequent letter of inquiry or business must have a three-penny postage stamp enclosed.

This last is very significant. It gives us to understand that the matrimonial department of this True Church is conducted on economical principles. Then, lectures being the order of the day—and for this innovation into our customs we may thank a very young Judge of the Court of General Sessions, who relieves himself of three or four every day to poor, God-forsaken wretches—a little advice is given to applicants. They are expected to honestly and candidly give full particulars, filling out the blank spaces in truth and sincerity. They threaten to visit a most condign exposure on those who play false. Reference as regards honesty will be required (is not this heavy?); but the person referred to will not learn for what purpose such reference is asked.

As soon as a case is recorded in a private book of registry, they try to match his or her case. If it is found that they have a congenial, and to all intents a proper one, they forward the man's photograph to the woman, and vice versa; that is, if they are not near enough to be personally introduced to each other; for, if they are, then, of course, the parties can settle the matter at once and conclude the bargain. The department takes many precautions to keep things mum until the grand eruption. For instance, the photographs will be merely numbered, the names being kept confidential until they find both applicants pleased. If they are so pleased, and get married, then they are expected to be candid enough to reveal to each other their real names and ages. If they cannot agree, then they will try again and again, until they suit the applicant.

We forgot to mention that if a marriage results from the introduction, a present is expected, as the persons identified with this swindle go upon the principle of thankfully receiving presents, even if they chance to be of the smallest possible kind.

If any applicant is very peculiar, or desires to optain a partner in a hurry, he or she may remit an extra sum of money, all the way from $10 to $100, with which they will advertise his or her special case—without the applicant's name of course. If a suitable partner is to be found, they will fish him up, without any exposition of the fact, if they have to roam this wide world over in search of him. They conclude by saying: "This is a perfectly proper and legitimate business of the holiest order."—New York Sun.

AT VAN WERT, Ohio, last Thursday morning, a person who was not willing that bygones should be bygones, delivered a bitter Copperhead harangue to a crowd, saying, "I hurrahed for Jeff. Davis during the war, and since the war," and, lifting his hat, added, "If I want to, I will hurrah for him now." A "veteran," who was silently listening, stepped forward, and, placing his fist close to the speaker's nose, said, "If you do, I will whip you." Jeff. Davis was not cheered.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY July 16, 1869.

The market was rather quiet to-day, the volume of business having been compartively light in the agregate, though as a general thing. sellers were asking a slight advance over yesterday's quotations. There has been no life in business for two or three days, and for some cause or other, operators generally, do not seem inclined to do much, preferring as it were, to hold off and await further developements. The shipments of refined east continue, liberal while the receipts of crude thus far this week, have been comparatively light.

CRUDE.

Sale 1,000 bbls July at 14⅝; and 1,000 spot (40 to 44) at 14⅝. There were but very few buyers at anything over 14½, while holders attempted to spring a slight advance, asking from 14⅝ to 14¾. Sellers option, all year, in absence of sales, may be quoted at 14, and buyer all year, 16½.

REFINED.

Sale 1,000 July at 31⅝; 1,000 September, at 33: and 500 each October to December, at 33. July is about ⅛ higher than yesterday. August, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 32½. "Lines" for late months, cannot be quoted above 33.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is again rising at this point under the influence of the recent heavy rains at the headwaters of the Allegheny, and last evening the Monongahela marks indicated seven feet nine inches. The weather yesterday cloudy and hot, with several showers; mercury at 5 P. M. 89 in the shade.

The Kenton arrived and departed as usnal.

The Bellevernon, Capt. J J Darragh, Jr., will positively depart for St. Louis to-day, and passengers and shippers can rely on this announcement.

The Lorena, Capt. Sam Shumaa, is now making engagements for St, Louis, and will take her departvre early next week.

Business continues very dull at the landing, and unless a boat is fortunate enough to fall in with an iron pile, she experiences considerable difficulty in picking up a full trip.

—The Kate Putnam left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday, and the Belle was advertised to follow.

—Capt. McCarty sold his interest in the Armadillo, at Cincinnati, on Wednesday, at the rate of $8.000 for the entire boat.

—The Kanawha Republican states that two dredge boats are busily engaged widening and improving the Elk chute, just below Charleston.

—The Leslie Coombs was seized by the United States Marshal yesterday, for a violation of the Internal Revenue laws in failing to take out the necessary papers. Her officers planked down $500, and the Leslie "lit out" up the river.

—Lyman Bradford, mate of the Emma Floyd, was struck in the back of the head with a bowlder, and knocked down and robbed of $35, Monday night, on the Cnicinnati wharf, when returning to the boat. His assailants were two. He was insensible for some time after being struck.

—The Mollie Ebert has reached St. Louis from Fort Benton. She was seventy-three days out from St. Louis, and experienced an immense amount of trouble from excessive low water, lack of fuel, &c. She is in good condition, however, and will not need to be docked or repaired.

—The Louisville Courier-Journal contains the following paragraph: The constable was hunting the Sam. J. Hale yesterday. On her last trip she refused to pay her wharfage—$12; hence the warrant. The officer, however, failed to capture her. The Minneola, of the same line, Cincinnati and Memphis, failed to pay her wharfage on her last visit, and will find a warrant awaiting her on her arrival at that port.

—A Cario telegraph to the Cincinnati Commercial says: The Baltic has coal and lays over until this morning to clean out boilers; future destination uncertain. She may possibly tow the hull of the Underwriter to Cincinnati. The Ajax has the largest tow ever brought down the river. It consists of 18 coal boats, 8 barges, and 3 fuel boats for her own use, the whole containing over 500,000 bushels of coal. John Dougherty and John Stafford are psiots.

—The report that the Captain of the Colossal had been stabbed in the abdomen by a negro is incorrect. It was Capt. Jim Lockhart, of the Bertha, who was cut, while on his steamer at Sioux City. It seems that he had some trouble with his crew, and was compelled to discharge and order them from the boat, when one of the "roustabouts" turned on him with a knife and gave him a serious cut as reported. Pilot Jos. Ohlmann, of the Colossal, says that at no time during the present season has there been more than thirty inches of water on Dauphin's Rapids.

—Sioux City, Iowa, advices of the 8th say: Rnports of a small rise. Boats down last night report the Emilie Labarge and Utah getting along well. The other evening we had ten boats here, more than ever known at any one time. The mate of the Peninah fired three pistol shots at a negro; no blood was shed; he afterwards struck a roustabout on the head nearly killing him. All whisky.

The Captain of the Colossal, was stabbed in the abdomen, by whom I don't know. The wound is not serious. All crews struck to-day, and put a stop to all work. Men are asking $50 per month; laborers 59c per hour. The boats all refuse to pay these rates. The men so far are firm.

IT HAS BEEN developed that the Knights of Pythias, at least in Louisiana, is an order political in its objects and nothing more than a succession to the Knights of the White Camelia, a rebel Democratic organization.

◆

WE elsewhere announce the sub-division of the County Republican Committee for the active duties of the campaign. Work is meant, and we rely confidently on the gentlemen composing the Committee to faithfully discharge the particular portion of labor allotted them.

◆

THE FREE-TRADE and bondholders' candidate showed much shrewdness in employing Brick Pomeroy as his fugle man at Harrisburg. The New York blackguard had only to come on to the ground, to detect the right men for his purpose, at a glance. He is said to have recruited largely among the Pittsburgh crowd.

◆

THE DEMOCRACY of Virginia are fearful that WALKER, the newly elected Governor, will prove on their hands much more than they bargained for, as he is believed to be in opposition to their politics, as well as to several pet railway schemes already under way. They propose to elect him to the United States Senate for the long term and thus dispose of his influence in State matters.

◆

THE new Democratic platform has not a word about the taxation of bonds or for greenback redemption, and not a word for protection to home industry! The "bloated bond-holders" ruled the Convention, and the chiefest of them was its nominee. This accounts for much of the milk in that cocoa-nut. But it surprises the people to see them show their true colors at last, on the question of free-trade, after so many years of studious effort at concealment.

◆

THERE is danger, in Tennessee, that Republicanism may be entrapped by the crafty tactics of the Conservatives. It has been generally understood that the latter would run no Legislative candidates, confining their votes to a choice among the Republican friends or opponents of the policy of disfranchisement. Hence, the field everywhere swarms with the aspirants of our party, while the Conservatives are quietly preparing to bring forward their own men, hoping to slip them into office. Luckily this game has been exposed, and steps will be taken to defeat it.

◆

THE impression prevails generally at Washington that Chief Justice CHASE entertains the very irregular application for an habeas corpus in the YERGER case, for the purpose of getting himself before the Democracy, as their Presidential candidate in '72, on the basis of his expected decision against the unconstitutionality of trials by military commission in the unreconstructed States. We are not yet prepared, even by our thorough conviction, of his insatiable ambition, to believe that the pending application is to be so decided, but if such a decision, be made there will be no reason to doubt that his real purpose is as above intimated.

◆

THE CUBAN PROPAGANDISTS, at Washington, have recommended the game of having the press-correspondents to telegraph to the country sensational statements of the disposition of the President and Cabinet to intervene in some indirect way in behalf of the insurgents. The Monroe doctrine is brought up, the unhappy contest is deplored, the provincial policy of Spain is denounced, and the liberal sentiments of the Creole rebels are generously eulogized. Our purchase of the island, or its own independence, are also hinted at. All this is the idlest of talk; it will neither influence the Administration, nor convince the country that it is wise to abandon our settled policy.

THE RIVAL TRUNK-LINES of railway are perfecting their Western connections with various success. The Pennsylvania termini for the present are at Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi. The N. Y. Central controls only a Chicago connection, relying, for the rest, upon the mere courtesies, or the business interests, of other powerful and independent Western corporations, for its access to most of the leading railway points in the West and Northwest. The Erie stops for the present at Dayton, Ohio, with a good show for reaching Toledo, as soon as a hundred miles of road can be built from Akron to that point. From Toledo westward, they are now attempting to secure control of the Wabash and Western road, which would connect them with the Upper Mississippi valley, but the effort is likely to fail. Practically, the through business of the Continent is to be monopolized by the two great lines first named, the Erie disappearing from that competition, and the N. Y. Central laboring under decided disadvantages. The main railway from ocean to ocean passes through Pittsburgh.

INSULTING THE FALLEN.

It is impossible to commend anything like a graceful magnanimity to our neighbor of the Post. Here it is again, angry and vituperative because we have recognized a public duty in acknowledging the public services, and in expressing our respect for the political consistency of our distinguished Democratic fellow citizen whom the Post and its clique have lately contrived to discredit and humiliate at Harrisburg. We have spoken not more kindly than justly of Mr. G. W. CASS. We can afford to do that, while the Post cannot. We have had no part nor lot in the shameless intrigue which has discarded him as unworthy of Democratic confidence. The Post, according to the universal judgment of this community, has been hand and glove from the first with his would-be assassins. We can bear an honorable and merited testimony to the integrity and courage of a political opponent, who has faced us for a quarter of a century, never flinching from his flag, and always faithful among the faithless, whom we have again and again beaten down, but who never yet surrendered his Democratic faith. Mr. GEORGE W. CASS has ever been "a foeman worthy of our steel," and we honor ourselves in awarding to him the merited meed. Shall the Post sneer at us for that? Has not our neighbor done quite enough? Must the assassins blow be followed up with abuse for those who dare to speak justly of the victim of its malice? We advise the Post to take no exception to our kindly mention of Mr. CASS. It would be wiser in maintaining the silence which has only been broken by its illnatured fling at this journal. No one expects it to praise the candidate whom, until three days since, it so warmly professed to love. No one wonders because the Post, since the Convention took its vote, has not uttered one syllable of kind and friendly sympathy for the betrayed candidate of the western Democracy. In its adulation for the successful millionaire, it has had no word of just tribute for his slaughtered competitor. Hundreds of confiding Democrats have searched its columns vainly, since the Convention adjourned, for even a bare mention of the name of a gentleman whom the Democracy, on this side of the Alleghenies, always knew how to respect and trust, and who is this day dearer to their hearts, in a defeat which dishonors only his betrayers, than ever before! The Post has no crocodile tears to shed over his taking off. Its BRUTUS over the dead CEASAR would exhibit a sublimity of impudence to which even our neighbor is not equal. It will do well therefore to leave the eulogies to us, and, for itself, to do as it has done, and say absolutely nothing. Its true part is well understood by us, by the indignant friends of Mr. CASS, and by the exasperated masses of our Democracy.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

The Harrisburg Telegraph lets in the daylight upon the dark-lantern intrigues and corruption which secured the Democratic nomination for PACKER. We quote:

"Brick Pomeroy, a noted New York politician, was early on the ground, pulling the strings for Packer. He appeared as the champion of the New York railroad interests, who are now compelled to pay their due proportion of taxes to this State, from which they desire to be relieved; and in the event of Packer's election, which is, however, not at all probable, they expect to be exonerated. The farmer, therefore, that votes for Packer, may expect a tax on his real estate to make up this deficiency.

Alderman Wm McMullin, Sam Carson, and the whole notorious Fourth ward crowd were on hand from Monday. The fact that Packer had placed ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS at the command of his friends, for the purpose of procuring the nomination, was openly proclaimed by the friends of Gens. Cass, Hancock and McCandless, and not denied by those who had the financial affairs in charge. The uninstructed were boldly approached, and it is positively charged that some delegates of influence received as high as five thousand dollars for their vote and influence. Sixty-seven votes were needed to make the nomination, and these financiers understood their business so well that they procured just that number without fail on second ballot. They were determined that no more should be spent than was actually necessary, as they did their work by the job. The balance went into their own pockets, and we understand that they are quite flush this afternoon. The Cass men openly proclaim that their favorite had eighty votes yesterday morning, pledged on first ballot, but that some traitor in their number gave the Packer men the names of their men, who by offering higher prices succeeded in getting their votes. Some delegates, it is said, sold themselves twice—first securing their price from the Cass men and then going to Packer's financier and selling themselves over, thus pocketing the money of both—neither of the duped daring to say a word about it. The opposition to Gen. Cass used deperate means to defeat him. On Monday night every uninstructed delegate was furnished with a circular marked "strictly private," containing the following ungenerous paragraph:

"Already the Opposition style him (Cass) the soldier in peace, the citizen in war. Every Democrat knows what difficulty we have with our soldier vote at best; but nominate Cass, and we virtually ask every man who drew a sword in the war, to swallow it. If you want to wreck the party you could not do it in a better way."

Considering that the nomination was made by open bribery and corruption, and maligning the opposition candidates, the friends of Generals Hancock, M'Candless and Cass give the nomination the cold shoulder. Mr. Cass particularly has been shamefully treated, and his friends do not hesitate to express their open hostility. The Cass Clubs have all disappeared from the scene of action in bitter disgust.

A New Enterprise.

We clip the following from the Philadelphia Press, of the eight inst.

An improvement long needed, finally consummated, and abundantly appreciated, is the Plymouth (Montgomery country) branch of the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Railroad, over which, on Monday last, was conveyed the first passenger train, bedecked with all the brilliant colors and welcomed with all the enthusiasm of Independence Day. This road was surveyed early in the spring of 1868, by Henry H. Corson, a talented young engineer, a native of Montgomery, but now employed on the corps of the City Engineer of Allegheny City, Pennsylvania. Much time has been consumed in its construction, and its final completion is a source of pleasure, profit, and accommodation. A further extension is now in progress, by which a junction will be formed with the North Pennsylvania Railroad, at or near Edge Hill statton. The enterprise is a judicious one. The valley through which the road passes is filled with mineral wealth, and nature has supplied it with many external features of beauty. The soil is rich and fruitful, and the climate healty and inspiriting. The introduction of this progressive channel cannot fail of developing rapidly and fruitfully the magnitude of its resources.

—The mechanical operations in the chief coiners department of the United States Mint, at Philadelphia, will be suspended for three or four weeks, commencing to-day. The receiving and paying departments will continue open.

—Gov. Walker, of Virginia, was serenaded Thursday night by the citizens of Binghamton, N. Y., and made a speech in response, saying his election in Virginia was a triumph of reconstruction measures over carpet-baggers.

—The official majority of Walker, Governor elect of Virginia, is 17,500.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Presbyterian refers to the grand project of the Methodists, in the purchase of the elegant new building on Broadway, New York, for the Book Concern and Mission Rooms, thus: From the roof of the building the whole city and its adjacent rivers, bays, and hills lie before the observer, while Fifth Avenue is seen to move up out of Union Park, directly from its centre, a straight line of costly beauty, to the Central Park, like the Champs d'Elysees from the place de La Concorde to the Arc d'Etoile and the Bois beyond. Most of the lower and a small part of the second story are let to one dry goods house for fifty thousand dollars a year. Others portions will be rented, so that the new burden, costing nearly one million of dollars, can be easily carried and allow the Mulberry street property, large and valuable. to be retained for manufacturing purposes.

Reference was made to the action of a colored church of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Kansas, that had severed its connection with that denomination, and become Congregational, on the ground that they were not recognized in the Presbytery with the whites. This accords with the action of the General Assembly that it would not be for the best interests of the Church for the ministers of two races of the South to meet in the same judicatories, and recommended the formation of Presbyteries of colored ministers, and the establishment of a theological seminary for colored students.

The increase in the Baptist Church, according to the Year Book, over last year, is twelve thousand and sixty-two members.

On Sabbath, July 4th, Bishop Kingsley preached in the new and spacious Tabernacle of the Mormons at Salt Lake city. While in Colorado Territory, he dedicated two new Methodist Episcopal churches, at Georgetown and Central City. At the former the people gave a collection of three thousand dollars, nearly enough to cancel the remaining indebtedness, and six thousand dollars at the latter. The church at Central City is the finest structure in Colorado.

The First African Baptist church, Richmond, Va., baptized during the past year five hundred persons, and has now a membership of forty-five hundred and eighty-three members.

The Liberal Christian thinks that ninety-nine one-hundredths of American Unitarians are firm believers in the final recovery of all souls from error and evil to truth and virtue.

A correspondent of the Record, Rev. J. I. Smith, writes that three years ago he planted the first Presbyterian church in La Crosse, Wisconsin, which had long been regarded as an unfavorable field for Presbyterianism. Now two churches of worship have been erected, though there is but a single organization.

A chime of forty three bells were blessed at Buffalo, New York, with great ceremony. Three Bishops and one hundred priests participated in the exercises. This is the largest chime in the country and cost fifty thousand dollars. The bells vary in weight from twenty-five to forty-three hundred pounds.

The stringent course of the General Conference of the United Brethren in Christ, in regard to Temperance secret societies, is breeding trouble. At one of the annual conferences, in Indiana, secession was threatened. It is stated the Rev. D. Berger, late able editor of the Religious Telescope, organ of that denomination, failed to be re-elected by the General Conference, because he thought that the rule on secret societies might be changed to allow members to unite with temperance secret societies.

The Independent represents that visitors to the Jewish Temple, on Fifth avenue, New York, are politely allowed a seat, but are not allowed to leave till the service, a lengthy one in German, is through. It would be an excellent rule to adopt in all the churches, and thus prevent the habit of uneasy people, going out during service without necessary cause.

The late sexton of the Spring street church, New York, Mr. James Ford, taught a class of young men in the Sunday school. Of forty young men taught in it, thirty-nine were hopefully converted to Christ. From under his care six passed into the ministry of the Gospel. What a glorious record in heaven, and how few teachers can trace the results of their labors so clearly!

The Catholic of this week contains an editorial on "Divorce," in which it urges the ministers of the Protestant faith to give attention to the lax view on the Divorce question among the churches, and not waste all their time on the Temperance and Sunday questions. Both are right—right for Catholics to hold the marriage relation in such high esteem, and for Protestants to use proper means to abate the abuses named.

The Camp Meeting Committee of Tarentum ground, occupied by the Methodist Episcopal churches in this city, will meet the lot holders and others on the ground, Monday morning, 19th inst.

A new (Old School) Presbyterian church has just been organized at Torren's station, near East Liberty. The congregation have given a call to the Rev. Jas. S. Hawk, now pastor of the United Presbyterian church of East Liberty.

Rev. S. C. Logan, Secretary of the Presbyterian General Assembly's Freedmen's Bureau, a resident of this city, has resigned his position to enter upon his duties as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Scranton, Pennsylvania, to which he received a call some months ago. He has conducted the affairs of the Freedmen's Committee with great energy and success, though the duties have been difficult and delicate.

The Lutheran Observer favors lay preaching, whenever it can be done without interfering with the prerogatives of the divinely appointed ministry.

An exchange says in the largest Episcopal church in Mobile, Ala., after a contribution is taken, it is handed to the rector, who asks all who have contributed to rise, when he solemnly consecrates the collection with prayer. Every one gives something.

Through the kindness of a friend we learn that the General Synod of the Moravian Church, which held its session at Hernhut, Saxony, in June, that the rule enjoining the duty of parents in the Church communion to present their children for baptism, be retained. The following action on the rite of baptism was adopted; that the present mode of baptism by sprinkling or pouring be retained as the ruling practice of our Church. By way of exception, in special cases, immersion may be allowed, provided that there be not therewith combined a rejection of Infant Baptism. In regard to secret societies, the Synod advised the members not to join societies whose tendencies and maxims are on principle drawn from publicity. Quite a number of delegates are present from the American Branch of the Moravian Church.

Sabbath, the 4th of July, Rev. Charles A. Dickey, late of Fourth United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny city, was installed pastor of the First New School Presbyterian church of St. Louis. The spacious edifice was closely filled. The sermon was delivered by Rev. S. M. Morton, who discoursed from these words "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down." After the pastor elect was questioned upon his faith, and proper responses by him and the congregation had been made, prayer was offered by the presiding officer. Mr. Dickey being duly constituted the pastor, Dr. Niccolls of the Second church gave the charge to the pastor. The exercises were interesting and his reception into the pastorate was cordial in the highest degree. We believe Mr. Dickey will not remove his family until September, meanwhile he will enjoy most of the time as a vacation.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Sterrett.

FRIDAY, July 16.—In the case of Commonwealth vs. Jno. McKirdy, indicted for embezzlement, previously reported, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the prosecutor, M. De Lange, pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Samuel Moore, Samuel Mack and James Mullen, indicted for larceny, was the first case taken up. The defendants were charged on oath of Henry Omsler with the larceny of three pieces of rope from a raft in the Allegheny river. Verdict of not guilty.

The next case taken up was the Commonwealth vs. John Frank, indicted for larceny. Verdict of not guilty.

W. H. Parsons, indicted for obtaining money under false pretences, George W. Brock, prosecutor, was arraigned and plead not guilty. The Court sentenced him to pay a fine of $100, the costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment of six months in the county jail.

John S. Jones, indicted for larceny, was next placed on trial, and the jury returned a verdicts of not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. John Law, against whom there was two indictments, for larceny and for receiving stolen goods. The accused was charged with stealing and receiving goods stolen from the Pennsylvania Railway Company. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty of larceny and guilty of receiving stolen goods.

Thomas Morgan, against whom there were two indictments for larceny and for receiving stolen goods, was next placed on trial. The defendant was charged with stealing and receiving iron stolen from the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of larceny and not guilty of receiving stolen goods, in both cases.

The next case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. William and Annie Schettler, indicted for aggravated assault and battery, Mary Schettler prosecutrix. Mary Schettler, the prosecutrix, is a little girl, aged about twelve years, it appears, is an orphan and was adopted by defendants, who, it is alleged, beat and abused her shamefully. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault and battery.

All the cases that the District Attorney was ready to try having been disposed of, the jury was discharged, with the thanks of the Court for their attention to public business, and there will be no more jury trials until the first Monday in September.

Nobody to Blame.

It is a well known fact that when anything of a commendable character transpires, or anything has been done which receives the commendation of the public, there are always a number of persons, both in official capacity and private life, to claim the credit of it; but on the other hand, if something of a mean, contemptable nature occurs—we say occurs, because no one will admit the commission of a mean act—there is "nobody to blame." It was not the duty of the private citizen to attend to the matter, and the official had no authority to act in the case.

An incident occurred last night which serves to illustrate these facts. Yesterday evening, between six and seven o'clock, a man about fifty years of age, a stranger it appears, was observed on the bank of the Monongahela river, a short distance above the Birmingham bridge, acting in a strange and unusual manner. When first seen he was running rapidly toward the river, and when within fifteen or twenty feet of the water's edge he began moving round in a circle and finally reeled and fell to the ground. A number of persons who had been watching him, ran to him to ascertain the cause of his strange actions, but on reaching him found him insensible, and evidently suffering from an attack of coup de soliel, or sun stroke. A wagon was procured, the unfortunate man removed to the watch-house, and Dr. Rodgers summoned, who at once pronounced it a case of sun strike. The man seemed to be suffering the most intense pain, was apparently sensible, but was unable to speak, although he made every effort to do so. His body and limbs were completely paralyzed. He could move his tongue, lips and the muscles of the face, and uttered a gutteral sound, but could not articulate a word. At the Doctor's request he was removed out of the room, which was exceedingly warm, to the open air, after which we were informed Dr. McCook, who had been previously summoned, arrived, and the usual remedies resorted to in such cases were applied. About this time it became necessary to remove the man under shelter, as the rain was falling rapidly, and he was taken into the hall leading to the Mayor's office from the watch-house, and laid on the floor, with his feet in the door way, and no part of a bed to lie upon except a cushion from a chair, which had been placed under his head. In this condition our reporter found him at half past ten o'clock, lying alone, apparently uncared for by any one.

It appears that the man was brought to the watch house a few minutes after seven o'clock, and consequently must have lain in that hall on the hard floor for over three hours, a piece of negligence of the most brutal and heathenish character; yet when we make inquiry as to who was responsible, we find there is "nobody to blame." We contend that somebody is fearfully responsible, and if this unfortunate man should die, when by proper care his life might have been saved, his blood will be upon the hands of that respectable person as though he had murdered him. We do not pretend to say upon whom the responsibility rests, but we must say that the authorities are sadly at fault in the matter. If they have no authority to send such cases to an hospital, it is high time that such authority be obtained, and arrangements made that would enable an officer to take the patient there at any and all hours. If this was the first victim of this character, there might be some excuse for it, but it is by no means an isolated case, and consequently is without paliation.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The Chicago excursion party have been wined and dined at Sacramento.

—Carter's planing mill and several workshops, at Belfast, Maine, were burned yesterday. Loss $20,000.

—A golden wedding party, from San Francisco, is expected via the Union Pullman Pacific Railway cars, at Chicago.

—Thirty car loads of crude oil were destroyed by fire, on Thursday night at Cleveland, on the E. A. and G. W. Railroad. Loss sixty thousand dollars.

—A number of convicts in the quarry at Sing Sing prison refused to work, and were locked up. Yesterday many more were locked up, and the prison authorities entertain fears of a general rebellion.

TRUSSES AND HERNIA.

The sad and deplorable condition of many who are afflicted with hernia or rupture of the bowels, calls loudly for some efficient and unmistakable remedy that will not only in every case give efficient relief, but in many cases effect a radical and thorough cure. These cases of hernia have become so frequent that it is computed that one-sixth of the male population are said to be troubled, in some way or another, with this terrible ailment; and in very many cases do not know where to apply for an appropriate remedy, oftentimes not knowing whether an appliance is really needed or not; and if it should be needed, they often do not know where or to whom they should make application. The world is full of trusses for the retention and cure of this lamentable evil, oftentimes an inconsestible proof of their total and inadequate fitness to relieve the sufferer. This need not be; DR. KEYSER, at his new medicine store, No. 167 Liberty street, is abundantly supplied with every appliance needful to the retention end relief of this terrible affliction, so that every one can be properly fitted, at a moderate cost, with the full assurance that the appliance is the best that the mechanical department of surgery can afford. The Doctor has pursued the investigation of hernia with more than ordinary care for over thirty years, so that the afflicted can place implicit reliance in his skill and integrity, with the full assurance that they will not only get the best truss suitable to the case, but likewise a thorough and efficient knowledge of its proper application.

There are many persons who not only sacrifice their health, but even their lives, for want of a proper truss, or a truss properly applied. Strangulated and irreduceable rupture is a far more common ailment now than in former years; and may we not justly arrive at the conclusion that its frequency is often occasioned by the neglect and carelessness of the sufferers themselves. No one would be regarded as sane or excusable who would go for a whole winter without the proper clothing to shield them from the inclement weather, but, at the same time, it is thought a light affair to suffer with a protrusion such as rupture that not only subjects the person to inconvenience, but even places life itself in jeopardy. Those of our readers who may be so unfortunate as to need appliances of this kind cannot act more wisely than to cut this advertisement and preserve it, so as to enable them to remember the place where such important preservers of life and health are to be procured.

SUMMER PERILS—HOW TO ESCAPE.

It will not do to trifle with the health in hot weather. Vigor oozes through the skin at every pore, and it is by physical vigor only that unhealthy influences can be baffled and repelled. The vital elements are evaporated in perspiration. Intense heat converts a man into a self-acting pump, and the moisture that is pumped out of him is derived from the well-springs of life within him. There is great need, therefore, that these sources of physical strength should be in a condition to bear, without danger or inconvenience, the extraordinary drain. If they are not in such a condition, the individual becomes languid and low-spirited.

The main thing is to keep the digestive apparatus in good working trim; for if the stomach, the purveyor of the system, does its duty thoroughly, the liver, the bowels, the brain, and the nervous system, being duly matured, will be likely to do theirs. In view of these facts, it is manifest that a powerful and wholesome vegetable tonic like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is especially required at this enfeebling season. It is the most admirable of all correctives and invigorants, and for this reason: it does not over-stimulate the system. The proportions of apperient, tonic and stimulating components are so judiciously graduated, that the process of invigoration and purification go on simultaneously, and no undue excitement is created in the circulation or the brain. All unmedicated stimulants, however pure, excite the pulse and the nervous system. Their exhilarating effect is temporary, and when it passes off the physical and mental depression they were employed to remove returns in an aggravated form. But this is not the case when HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are taken as a stomachic and nervine. The medical herbs, roots and gums with which they are impregnated neutralize the exciting principle of the rye spirit which forms their basis, and which is in itself the most wholesome of all the varieties of alcohol,

SECURITY AND COMFORT for the traveling community.

J. B. HARRIS

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and

MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fire in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, July 16, 1869.

A decline of one quarter per cent. of our government bonds at London depressed the market here over half per cent. on the average, and gave gold, which was barely sustained, a firmer tone, when bonds recovered part of the decline, and further information being obtained from London, the price of gold steadily declined from 136⅞ to 135⅝, with a rather bearish feeling for the moment. The temper of the gold room does not, however, admit of any wide fluctuation, especially as regards a further decline below present quotations, and it is most likely that before next Thursday the market will have reached as high a quotation as it did since the first of July.

Government bonds, after selling down to 119¾, recovered to 120¼@120½. The lower gold quotations, however, are not very favorable for any further rise now; also, larger amounts are offered on the market than for a long time since.

Stocks are dull, and have all declined except the New York roads. About Cleveland and Pittsburgh nothing reliable can be ascertained concerning the reported scrip dividend. Express stocks are weak, without any special yielding.

Money easy. Large amounts of currency are shipped for the East.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, July 16, 1869.

Speculators continue to keep Flour and Grain up in Chicago and New York, in face of the fine harvest weather for several days, past and the almost certainty that all the small grains will be secured in good condition, and that the yield will be considerably above an average. The reports from nearly every quarter are very favorable—in many sections the Wheat crop has already been safely housed, and the only complaint noticeable is that here and there it has been knocked down, requiring the sickle to cut it.

A miller from an adjoining county, who was in the city the other day, says that her expects to buy Wheat at his mill at $1,00 per bushel; another miller from the Eastern part of the State, reports that he expects to buy in his neighborhood at from 90 cts to $1,00, and we are cognizant of one of our city millers who declined to offer above $1,25 for new Wheat, for future delivery. It is true, millers are usually bearish, as they like to buy Wheat as low as possible, but the above figures show that they have no idea that the prices which are now prevailing can long be sustained.

APPLES—Sales of new crop at $3@4 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is dull notwithstanding the supply is light and prices are barely sustained—20@25c for fair to choice.

BEANS—Dull at $1,75@2.

BROOMS—Quoted as follows: No. 5 $6,50; No. 4 $6; No. 3 $5, No. 2, plain, $4,50, and market firm.

CHEESE—Sales Western Reserve, at 15; Hamburg, at 16; Factory, at 17; and Goshen, at 18.

CARBON OIL—Is quiet, and demand, as usually the case at this season of the year, light.

DRIED FRUIT—Dull. Peaches nominal at 9@10 for quarters; 12@14 for mixed, and 16 for prime halves. Apples 10@13 cts.

EGGS—Dull at 20@21c.

FEATHERS — Supply in hands of commission men almost exhausted. Live geese may be quoted at 85@90, to the trade, and $1 in a retail way.

FISH—Quoted as follows: No. 1 Mackeral, $14 per half bbl; No. 2, $10,50; No. 3 large (full) $7,50; do short, $6,75; Baltimore Herring $9 per bbl do Shad, $8,50. Lake Herring, $3,25 per half bbl, and White Fish, $8.

FLOUR—Continues firm, but the demand is only moderate, and prices are unchanged. We continue to quote Western Flours at $6,50@7 for Spring Wheat brands, and $7@725 for Winter Wheat.

GRAIN—Wheat is very scarce, and prime to choice Red on spot, would still bring $1,35@1,40, but these figures could not be realized for future delivery. Oats held firmly in expectation of an advance, but at present the demand is light; sales on track at 66, and in store at 68@70. Rye is in steady demand at $1,25, and but little coming in. Corn is scarce and firm, but unchanged, 78@80 for mixed, and 83@85 for prime Yellow.

HAY—Baled is being sold to the trade at $25@28, for good to strictly prime Timothy.

HEMP—Last sales at $205.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LIME—Cleveland Lime is quoted at $2,50, per bbl, and Common White at $1,75.

LARD OIL—Sales of No. 2 at $1,15@1,18 nd No. 1 at 1,45@$1,48

POULTRY—Sales of spring chickens, by the coop, at 65@70c per pair.

POTATOES—Dull; sales of new crop at $2,00@2,50 per bbl

PROVISIONS—Market firmer, and Sugar Cured Hams have advanced. Shoulders, 14¾@15 for Plain, and 17 for Sugar Cured; Ribbed Sides, 17¾ and Clear do, 18¾; Plain Hams, 18½ and Sugar Cured do, 22@22½. Lard in tierces, 20½@20¾ in half bbls and 21@21½ in kegs. Dried Beef, 22. Mess Pork $33,50.

PEANUTS—Small sales at 12.

SALT—Allegheny River brands are quoted, by the car load, at $1,75@1,80.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, July 16, 1869.

The metal market presents but little that is new or important. There is considerable inquiry for desirable brands of foundry irons, and not much of this particular kind to be had in this market, at least. As a matter of course, there is not much doing in mill irons, although we understand some of the mill men have been feeling around this week, to see what they could buy at for future delivery; this, of course, has imparted a better feeling, but it is not likely that there will be much done for a week or two. The receipts from all quarters continue meagre, and the stocks in yard are by no means large.

In regard to bar iron and nail trade, there are no new or important features worthy of special notice. The few mills that have not stopped are running on orders, and the stocks of manufactured iron, as well as nails, are very much reduced.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

Virginia and her New Governor.

We are gradually getting at the facts in regard to the late election in Virginia; and they disclose some remarkable developments. Discounting the exultations of the victors and the accusations of the vanquished by their conflicting emotions, two elements begin to assume prominent shape:

I. That the majority of the victors are in hearty accord with the Democratic party of the North, and will use their power, if not checked by Governor Walker, to give Virginia to the Democratic candidate for President in 1872.

II. That the new Legislature, composed largely of ex-Confederates, will proceed to strip the free constitution just adopted of all its republican features the moment the State is admitted into the Union.

We cannot believe that Colonel Walker, the newly-chosen Governor, will be a party to the first programme, and the second can be counteracted by General Canby refusing to allow the members of the Legislature to qualify unless they can take the iron-clad oath. It is a question for grave deliberation whether any other course would be an open infraction of the acts of reconstruction, and would not compel Congress to refuse to admit Virginia.

But this example will not be wholly barren of results, let us hope, upon the rebel Democracy. It may make sincerity on their part profitable. We are not disposed to believe that they are all dishonest in professing to accept universal suffrage. Here, indeed, they present a healthy contrast to their associates in the North. It is a large gain also to feel that they voted freely for candidates selected as Republicans, and openly avowing themselves to be such. And although much intimidation and corruption was exercised to secure the colored vote for Col. Walker, we must ignore the fact that wherever a slaveholder approached his former "property" and asked their suffrages, it was in a respectful and sometimes in an obsequious spirit, and always on the plea that he did not ask them to vote for Democratic but for Republican candidates.

Yet there will no doubt be a good deal of "cheating round the board," and many of the old Virginia foxes will soon emerge into first-class Democratic wolves. But, as we have said, they cannot all be imposters. There are many who will doubtless try to make good R. T. Daniels' dispatch to President Grant on the day after the election.

Gilbert C. Walker, the new Governor, is doubly bound to fulfill his covenants. Not to mention the fact that he was advocated, even by the old secessionists, like Extra Billy Smith, as a Republican, his speech at Richmond on the 7th inst., and his Monday's visit to President Grant, seemed to be deliberate preparations for decided fidelity to his Republican record. One report goes so far as to make him say to the President that he deeply regretted to see his friend, General Rosecrans, the candidate of the Vallandigham party in Ohio, from which it is easy to infer that Golonel Walker never regarded himself as the candidate of the worse than Vallandighammers of Virginia.

And if these spoken and printed words mean anything they mean an early separation between Walker and the rebel Democrats. He can do much for Virginia if he will. He can get her admitted into the Union by boldly adhering to his record as a "War Democrat," and by refusing to assist the ex-rebels in tearing down the new free Constitution. If he is the "Grant man" he claims to be, let him stop their war upon Republicans, white and black. Let him invite immigration and capital into Virginia by proving that he did not enter this campaign to make Virginia another Maryland or Georgia. This is the way to propitiate Congress and to secure his own enduring fame.—Washington Letter.

Distinguished Men of Color in France.

At the head of the men of color at the present day celebrated in France, is Alexandre Dumas. He is himself a native of France and the son of a general. Among literary men who are either negroes or mulattoes are, also, Eugene Chapus, a native of Gaudaloupe, a pleasing and refined writer, at present the principal editor of the journal La Sport Francaise; M. Felicien Mallefille, a romancer and dramatist, author of the 'Memoirs de Don Juan Les Sept Enfants de Lara," and a comedy entitled "Le Cœur et la Dot," which, since 1853, has held a position upon the boards of the Comedie Francaise; M. Auguste Lacausade, a distinguished poet, chevalier of the Legion of Honor, and principal editor of the Revue Europeenne; M. Victor Sejour, a native of New Orleans, a dramatic author of considerable celebrity, and an officer of the Legion of Honor; M. Melvil Bloncourt, a most agreeable, pleasing writer, whose articles appear in the Courier du Dimanche, the Siecle, and the Journal des Economistes, in which he has recently published a remarkable article upon Hayti. The founder of the Journal des Ecoles, M. Bloncourt, while still a student, defended the cause of the enfranchised slaves against the colonial reaction. M. Bloncourt has recently written for the Biographie Universelle the lives of celebrated men of color in all countries.

M. Alexandre Dumas, (the younger), author of the celebrated "Dame aux Camelias," "Diane de Lys," etc., bears evident marks of his origin and race. M. Caraby, of New Orleans, is one of the next brilliant advocates of the bar of Paris. M. White, of Cuba, the son of a negress, received the first prize as a violinist from the Conservatoire de Musique in 1856. M. de la Nux, also the possessor of a first prize from the Conservatoire, is a pianist of great skill and celebrity.

In the French army, at this time, are several men of color, among them M. Virgile, an eleve of the Ecole Polytechnique, Colonel of artillery, and Chevalier of the Legion of Honor; M. Lazare de Lance, Captain of cuirassiers; M. Guillot Roux, Captain of zouaves; M. Bouscaren, Lieutenant in the line; M. Beville, Lieutenant of hussars, and Bores, Captain in the French navy. The ecclesiastical profession also contains many men of color, some of them of celebrity; and among these M. Alfred Labory, Director of the Freres de la Doctrine Chretienne, of Ploermel, and M. Langlume, missionary to Senegal.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

It seems that Secretary Boutwell made a long speech in the Cabinet meeting yesterday, against the Administration giving aid and comfort to the movements of the politicians in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, who style themselves "Conservatives." He had no faith in the successful party in Virginia, and he saw danger ahead to his party if the Administration insisted on countenancing the "Conservative" or "National Republican" party in Texas and Mississippi. As he understood it, the party in power is known simply as the "Republican" party, and, unless he was greatly mistaken, the so-called "Conservatives" are the enemies of that party, and did not indorse or support the platform on which President Grant was elected. He thought the Administration owed it to itself and to the party that put it in power to beware of pretenders, and to take no risks in any of the "new movements" which might result in disaster. He thought the position of the Administration toward the "Walker party" in Virginia had been misinterpreted, and the country had been led to believe things which were not true concerning the same. He had been in communication with prominent leaders of the Republican party, both North and South, and found that they had fallen into the error of supposing that the so-called "Conservatives" of Virginia and other Southern States had received the full endorsement of the Administration, and they seemed alarmed. He counseled extreme caution, and rigid adherence to the well known principles of the party of which he and his associates had been selected as representatives. The result was that it was unanimously agreed to have the elections in Mississippi and Texas take place after the fall elections in the Northern States, and as near the time of the assembling of Congress as is possible.

It appears that Judge Dent recently nominated for Governor of Mississippi, by a party of so-called "Conservative" Republicans, recently called on Secretary Boutwell, for the purpose of securing the influence of the Treasury Department in his behalf during the forthcoming canvass. The conversation which ensued was decidedly spicy, the Judge insisted that he was a supporter of the Administration, while the Secretary declared that he could not consistently use the patronage of his Department for the benefit of any political organization not in full accord with the Republican party and the principles embraced in the platform at Chicago, when Gen. Grant was nominated. As the interview proceeded the parties became quite earnest, and Mr. Boutwell bluntly told his visitor to mind his own business, adding that he was capable of controlling the affairs of the Departmemt without assistance from outsiders. He added that none but those who supported the Chicago platform, and were willing to support the Fifteenth Amendment, had been appointed by him to office in Mississippi, and finally dismissed the Judge with the information that his requests were of no avail.

A delegation of Radical Tennesseeans have arrived here to urge the Administration to take a decided stand in favor of the election of Stokes for Governor of that State Their efforts will probably be successful.

It is rumored here, on good authority, that Chase will decide in favor of a habeas corpus to release Yerger, the murderer of Crane. In fact, it is believed that this result was settled upon when it was determined to bring the case before him. This is to be Chase's bid for the Southern vote as Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1872. Chase is further thought to have inspired the Conservative element of Virginia in favor of Walker, and that he will follow out his plan all over the South. He was ready and willing to take the Democratic nomination in 1868. He declares that the Democrats will never succeed until they adopt universal suffrage. This is to be the new card.

"Professor Anderson," an "itinerant" illusionist, we are informed, was stopping at the Belmont House, in Bellaire, last week, with his wife (?), and intended to entertain the people of that town by giving an exhibition of his accomplishments in the sleight-of-hand business. As an inducement to attend he proposed to distribute among his auditors various prizes, consisting of bedsteads, little pigs, &c. Everything was getting on swimmingly, when his "t'other wife" made her appearance on the scene. Of course that little circumstance wrought a marvellous change in the condition of things, and the "Professor" concluded to concentrate the exhibition into one grand dissolving view. This he accomplished by beating a hasty retreat, leaving the two Mrs. Andersons to arrange their claims to his affections at their leisure.

At the National Camp-meeting of the Methodists at Pound Lake, N. Y., the supplementary meetings are, as usual, well attended, and the lady preachers enjoy a fair share of public attention. My ancient friend of the fluttering cap has been engaged all day in doing wordy battle against tobacco, rum, adultery, dress, and the other enemies of godliness, and but for her excessive vehemence would be a mighty power in bringing over arrant sinners. She unmasked a new battery this morning, and opened a hot fire upon the sin of horse racing. She declares that on the day the races begin at Saratoga she will be there, and will not miss the opportunity to make known the will of God on the subject of wagering, betting, gambling and otherwise risking, losing and stealing what should be applied to the decent purposes of life.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

Throwing Stones.—George Rinemiller was arrested yesterday evening on Fifth avenue, charged with throwing a stone through the window of Putnam & Co's establishment on Fifth avenue. A friend deposited $125 for his appearance this morning and he was released.

Trains Delayed.—The trains on the West Pennsylvania Railroad were delayed over three hours yesterday afternoon, in consequence of an accident at Freeport. The locomotive attached to a freight train, it appears, jumped the track, which caused the detention.

That Decision.—Alderman Neeper, yesterday delivered his decision in the case against John Herman, charged with following worldly employment on Sunday. He decided that the man was guilty and imposed the fine of $25 and costs. We presume the case will be taken to a higher court.

New Wheat.—Messrs. R. T. Kennedy & Co., the well known and respectable flour dealers, have furnished us with a sample of new wheat, from which they to-day supply their customers with fresh flour made from it. The wheat is remarkably good, and we dare say the flour from the popular mills will be eagerly sought after.

Disorderlies.—Michael Munich, engaged in a row in a beer saloon in the Seventh ward, Allegheny, Thursday evening. He was arrested and fined by Mayor Drum five dollars for disorderly conduct.

A similar fine was imposed upon Fred. Ballas, for creating a disturbance on Chestnut street, Allegheny.

Wife Whipper.—Charles Baughtoun, while intoxicated, Thursday evening, endeavored to entertain himself by whipping his wife, and smashing the furniture and windows in his dwelling on Jackson street. The police interfered with his diversion, and lodged him in the lock-up. Yesterday morning Mayor Drum fined him $10 and costs.

A Pleasant Excursion.—On Thursday the Sabbath School connected with the Fifth United Presbyterian Church, Rev. S. B. Reed, pastor, made its annual excursion to Baum's Grove, on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The children, teachers and accompanying friends numbered about five hundred, and all enjoyed an exceedingly pleasant day and evening.

Blown Down.—During the high wind yesterday, a large tree on Beaver street, near the First Christian Church, was blown down.

A portion of the scaffolding in the new buildings, on the north east side of the Diamond, was also carried off. In all parts of the cities, scaffolding, sign boards, and trees, scattered promiscuosly about, gave evidence of the force of the blast.

Coroner's Inquest.—Coronor Clawson yesterday held an inquest on the body of John Morrison, who died of sunstroke, in Indiana township, near Hamar station, on the Western Ponnsylvania Railroad, on Thursday evening. Deceased was about sixty years of age, was a native of Ireland, and had been a resident of this country about twenty two years. The jury returned a verdict of death from sunstroke.

To Tax Payers.—Tax payers should remember that after the 31st of this month the deduction of five per cent. will not be made, but the full amount of taxes will be collected during the month of August, and on and after the first of September ten per cent. will be added to all taxes not paid. Those having taxes to pay will, if they desire to save the five per cent., call on Major Denniston, the gentlemanly County Treasurer, during the present month.

Good in Nature.—The Sabbath evening lectures in the First Methodist Church, Fifth avenue, (near the GAZETTE office,) by the pastor, Rev. A. Clark, are attracting very appreciative audiences. Last Sabbath evening the congregation was quite large, notwithstanding the heat. Mr. Clark's subject for to-morrow evening is "Waters that Might Have Been." He treats his themes in a peculiar style, attractive, popular and suggestive. The seats are free in this church.

Segars and Tobacco.—Dealers and consumers of tobacco generally are invited to call at the well-known establishment of John Megraw, No. 45 Hand street, where they will find one of the largest and best selected stocks of tobacco and segars, and smokers' goods, generally to be found in this market. The stock of tobacco embraces all the fancy brands of Louisville and Richmond, as well as an excellent article of Michigan fine cut, and his segars are equal if not superior to any in the city. A visit to the establishment will convince the most skeptical of these facts.

The Boulevard Pavement, so generally in use in many foreign and American cities, is now being successfully introduced in this community. It is decidedly the best style of pavement ever invented, being firm, solid, smooth, durable and pretty. For garden walks, promenades and side walks it is vastly superior to bricks, tiles or marble, presenting an unbroken and polished surface. Messrs. R. M. McCowan & Co., office No. 65 Ohio street, Allegheny, are largely engaged in the business, and on most reasonable terms put down the famous Boulevard. Orders left at our counting room will be promptly attended to.

Queensware, Fruit Jars, &c.

Messrs. S. M. Kier & Co., of the Keystone Pottery, have on hand at their extensive warehouse and salesroom, No. 363 Liberty street, a large and full assortment of the celebrated Keystone ware, which is equal in point of finish, strength, beauty and durability, if not superior, to the best imported wares. In addition to their usual stock of queensware they have now on hand a large stock of fruit jars of their own manufacture, which for durability and convenience are equal, if not superior, to any other jars in the market. They retail trade generally are invited to call and examine their stock.

Run Over and Killed.

Yesterday morning, between eight and nine o'clock, a coal miner residing at Irwin Station, was walking along the railroad track near that place, when a coal train coming toward the city compelled him to step aside to the other track. At this instant the Fast Line, going east, came along, and before he had time to get out of the way, not realizing his danger, on account of his back being toward it, he was knocked down and run over, causing instant death. The train was stopped as soon as possible, and the body taken to his residence at Irwin. We could not learn his name, but understand he had a wife and family depending upon his labor for support.

Seizure Under the Revenue Laws.

Collector Davis yesterday seized twenty barrels of whisky which had been shipped by Mills, Johnson & Co., of Cincinnati, to parties in this city, on account of some informality or violation of the revenue laws in branding. Fifteen barrels were consigned to a German on Penn street, and were found on his premises, having been removed from the depot. The remaining five which were consigned to Mr Kellar, of Allegheny city, had not been delivered, and were still at the depot.

In searching for the whisky he made another and more important di-covery, which led to the seizure of twenty-three barrels of vinegar, shipped by George Engelke, No. 214 South Fifth street, Columbus, Ohio, as follows: 3 barrels to James Connor, Liberty street; 7 barrels to Voigt & Mahood, Liberty street; 3 barrels to Haworth & Co., and the remaining 10 to P. Duff & Son. The two former lots had been delivered, and the others were found in the car at the depot. The seizure was made on account of a violation of the law, which prohibits the use of packages or barrels a second time without the stamp and brand having been entirely erased or removed. The barrels containing this lot of vinegar, it appeared from the stamps and brand upon them, had at one time contained whisky, and instead of erasing the stamp as the law requires it had merely been covered with a blue wash or paint which was easily rubbed off. The penalty for this violation of the law is one of the most severe that it imposes. The party shipping is liable to a fine of $300 and confiscation of the property, and the carrier is subject to a similar fine, and the car or other means of transportation carrying the same is liable to seizure.

Alleged Disorderly House.

Yesterday morning, John G. Barder made information before Alderman Humbert, against Chas. B. Stein and his wife Barbara Stein, for keeping a disorderly house on Third avenue. According to John's statement, a few days ago he married a young woman, formerly a domestic at Stein's, and whom he had known for some time. After the ceremony was over, he left his wife at the house for a day or two, but when he returned again to bring her away, was refused admittance and ordered from about the premises. He endeavored in vain to effect an entrance, and finally, exaspered beyond measure, instituted the proceedings as stated.

An officer was provided with a warrant, and proceeding to the house succeeded in arresting four of the inmates, Mrs. Stein, Margaretta Yanman, Ella Dunham and Mary, the wife of Barder. They were all discharged with the exception of Mrs. Stein, who was held in the sum of $1,000 for trial. Stein, the proprietor of the establishment, was sick in bed at the time, but will be compelled to give bail as soon as he recovers.

Margretta Yanman, after being discharged, lodged information against Barder for disorderly conduct, alleging that he called her vile names, and charged her with stealing his pocketbook containing one hundred dollars. The case was heard and resulted in the dismissal of Border, the prosecutrix paying the costs.

The Humboldt Centenial.

At the meeting of the Committees appointed for the purpose of devising the best manner of celebrating the Humboldt Centenial, September 14th, 1869, a programme of exercises was adopted, as follows: The festivities will be introduced on the evening of the 13th, (Monday), with a grand concert and Tableaux Vivant. On the day proper, Tuesday 14th, a procession will be formed at half past eight o'clock A. M., in Pittsburgh, to proceed to the Allegheny Park, for the purpose of laying the corner stone of the Humboldt monument or bust, to be decided upon by the Mass Meeting called for Monday evening next. After these ceremonies the procession will proceed to Iron City Park, where a grand mass festival [volks fert] and "summernight festival," will be held.

A banquet is talked of, but the Committee has not decided in reference to the feature.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening, July 19th, at Turner Hall, Sixth avenue, to which all persons without distinction of nationality are invited.

Guilty But Drunk.

Mary Garvin, who periodically sojourns at the "City Hotel," was conducted to that establishment last evening by one of its numerous runners. It appears that Mary was passing down Ross street in the afternoon, and seeing the door of A. Wilson & Co.'s establishment open, walked in. It happened that there was no person in at the time, and Mary seeing a coat hanging on a peg appropriated it and walked out. Shortly after she had taken her departure with the coat, Mr. Wilson, to whom it belonged, came into the room and looking for the garment discovered that it was not where he had left it. He went to the door and saw Mary a short distance off proceeding leisurely along the street with the coat on her arm, whereupon he followed her and recovered his property. At this stage of the affair an officer came along and Mary was taken in charge.

Narrow Escape.

Last evening, about six o'clock, a carter attempted to drive his vehicle across the railroad track at the Sandusky street crossing, Allegheny, in front of the Freeport Accommodation, which was just then approaching the Depot. Unfortunately, the horse failing to move rapidly enough the cart was struck by the bumper of the locomotive and shivered into splinters. Miraculously the man made his escape by jumping out at the rear of the vehicle and the horse was saved by the giving way of the harness, which was literally torn from his body. The animal was so badly frightened that he seemed to have lost the power of motion, and after the train had passed stood trembling alongside the track until he was secured. The reckless driver was taught a lesson which he will doubtless remember.

Tornado.

There was a severe wind storm, assuming the form of a tornado, at Harmer's Station, on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday. The grain shocks were torn to pieces and the grain scattered in every direction, fences were blown down and large forest trees were torn from their roots and prostrated. Immediately after the storm a heavy fall of rain ensued.

The same gust passed over this city about one o'clock P. M., during which the "wind blew a perfect hurricane." The roof was blown from M'Kim & Co's bonded warehouse, in the Fifteenth ward, and Smith & Friday's sign, at the corner of Penn and Eleventh streets, was blown down. We heard of no further damage being done.

The Mutual Protectionists.

The Mutual Protection Society, better known as the "informers," who have taken upon themselves the task of compelling a strict observance of the Sunday law, held a meeting in Turner Hall yesterday afternoon, from which, as is their custom, reporters were excluded. Our reporter managed to get the following correct report of the proceedings from one of the protectionists, who holds that the meetings should be public:

The Society was called to order by the President, Mr. Pearson, who stated that a meeting of the tavern keepers, known as the whisky league, which was a branch of the Society, was held at Anderson Hall, Penn street, on Thursday, which he regretted to say was poorly attended. He hoped those interested would take a greater interest in the matter. The speaker then referred to the operations of the Society, stating that informations had been made against two drivers on the Central Passenger Railway, and a driver on the Oakland road, against three tavernkeepers and one druggist, for selling whisky, and that one of the railroad cases had been decided in favor of the protectionists. He recommended that no member of the Society make information against any person without consulting the Society's attorney, who would be at Saenger Hall every Monday, between the hours of nine and ten o'clock A. M., for consultation, which was necessary, he said, to avoid prosecution for conspiracy. He further stated that no action for conspiracy would lie against any member of the Society so far under the present law. He thought it the duty of every tavern keeper in the community to aid the Society in a strict enforcement of the Sunday law, and recommended that a subscription paper be circulated among the citizens favorable to the movement for the purpose of raising funds to carry on the enterprise.

A hat was then passed through the audience and a collection approximating $250 was taken up, after which the meeting adjourned, to meet at the call of the President.

Sharpsburg Notes.

A correspondent writing from Sharpsburg, says: Our townsman J. C. Lewis, Esq., of the firm of Lewis, Dalzell & Co., is now in Europe, and Gen. F. H. Collier, wife, daughter and sister, have gone to the sea shore in pursuit of health. But notwithstanding the absence of some of our citizens, our religious interests are not neglected. On Sabbath the 4th instant, forty persons were received into full membership in the First Methodist Church, under the pastoral care of Rev. Colhouer.

On the same day, the lecture room of the new M. E. Church was opened for divine service, under the direction of Rev. Wood.

And on last Sabbath, the Baptist Church, having undergone repairs and improvements, under the direction of Rev. Colwell, was opened for divine service by Rev. Dr. Young, of your city.

The Catholics have been as usual, very active, and have held three very pleasant and enjoyable pic nics.

Improvement Commenced.

Some time ago we stated the Directors of the St. Clair Street Suspension Bridge had decided to make a change in the construction of the toll house by placing a large bow window at each side facing the streets by which the bridge is approached. Yesterday workmen were engaged in altering the house on the Allegheny side in accordance with the proposed plan. In addition to these changes the house on the Pittsburgh side will be removed several feet further back from Duquesne Way, as a portion of it has been found to be encroaching upon the city line. It is also contemplated to lay a new floor on the roadways of the bridge.

An Interesting Event.

A novel and most interesting festive reunion, gratifying and creditable alike to the employers and the employed, took place at Steinway Hall, New York, on Saturday last, when the workmen of Messrs. Steinway & Sons, numbering over seven hundred men, assembled in the hall, accompanied by a band of thirty performers, to commemorate the fact that piano-forte number twenty thousand of the firm's make had been completed, on which occasion they were to be the recipients of a magnificent banner, presented to them by Messrs Steinway & Sons. The banner, a rich and elaborate masterpiece of artistic skill, was designed by Mr. Henry Reck, the celebrated decorator of Steinway Hall, and the work of art was completed by Mrs. Francisca Klein; it was presented to the workmen with appropriate remarks by Mr. Theodore Steinway, and enthusiastically received by them. Mr. Burkard responded on their behalf in an able speech. An address was made by Mr. Abercrombie, who has been with the firm since they commenced business, who gave a brief history of the firm of Steinway & Sons, exhibiting how, from an humble commencement seventeen years ago, when they manufacured but one piano weekly, the firm had within that comparatively brief space of time, solely through the excellence of their productions and skillful management, attained their present eminent position, namely, that of having the most perfectly arranged and extensive establishment in the world, regularly employing upward of seven hundred skilled workmen, and turning out no less than "sixty" grand, square and upright pianos weekly, which are sent to all parts of the civilized world. The business of the firm, exceeding in magnitude that of the twelve largest piano forte manufacturers in New York combined, as shown by the published sworn internal revenue returns.

Mr. William Steinway responded on behalf of the firm in a terse and appropriate speech, on the conclusion of which the procession formed, and, headed by the band, marched down Broadway, through Broome street, and down the Bowery to the foot of Market street, whence a boat conveyed them to the grounds of their grand picnic at Jones' Wood, where the rest of the day was most agreeably spent in social enjoyment with their families. The procession was well arranged and imposing in appearance, and created a marked sensation as it passed through the several streets in its route; and the whole affair, which was conducted with enthusiasm on all sides, was equally creditable to the Messrs. Steinway and their employes.

The Most Perfect Application of the true idea of co-operation which has come under our observation is to be found in the workings of the Co-operative Life Insurance Company of this city. It associates its patrons in classes with a limited number of members, who as between themselves are co-operators in an ordinary sense of a diffused partnership. But the real co-operative relation exist between the Corporate company and these separate classes, and consist in this; If any number of these co-operators make default to their class, the company assumes their obligations, makes the payments for them, and protect itself from loss by a preferred claim on their policies; and thus without risk or loss to any save the defaulters themselves, renders perfectly indestructible these mutual associations of self-insurants which have heretofore failed of success only for want of this co-operation of a responsible company. The whole system is exceeding simple, safe and economical, and when rightly understood will doubtless be adopted by the most progressive of the old companies.

Wonderful.—Henry W. Burr, No. 49 West 14th street, while on a visit to the West, was attacked with severe illness from drinking impure water. Life was despaired of, and it was thought that he must die. His wife was immediately sent for, and in a day or two was at his bedside. Having herself seen the beneficial results from the use of PLANTATION BITTERS, she insisted upon their being administered to him, which was done, in quantities prescribed by the attending physician. The result was almost as if by magic, and in one-half hour from the time they were given her husband was out of danger, and by a moderate use of them three or four times a day, he was soon able to resume his journey to his home. This is but one case of many thousands that we know of.
